News from Our Resort to You

Did You Know - that the main motivation for camping is just that - CAMPING. That really says it all! I have had a chance to do a little RV Camping lately and have enjoyed it immensely. Just sitting outside with friends in the twilight of the evening with a glass of wine or in the wee hours of the quiet morning with a cup of coffee is just the best thing ever. What a life!!

Our goal here at the CVRV Resort is to make that camping experience even more enjoyable which is exactly what we plan to do over the next few months. So make plans now to join us for all our Thanksgiving events, our Winter Wonderland, Chocolate Extravaganza and all of the other fun-filled events we have in store for you. Check out the Events page of our Web site at www.chulavistarv.com.

Until we see your smiles, safe travels,

Andrea LaValley, GM

POKEMON CRAZE (or Crazies??)

It surely must be a sign that I've aged beyond the current medium age of the population. Pokemon seems to me like a plague and watching people running around our Harbor (which surely you've noticed), fixated on their cell phones and running like mad dogs to catch the next monster, makes me think these poor people have no life. But, I think it is here to stay. The phenomenon is nationwide, and locally they are eager to play in Coronado, Balboa Park, our Harbor, and elsewhere in San Diego.

When I see whole families (mom, dad, and two kids in tow) arriving at dusk and all 4 of them fixated on their cell phones, I am reminded of the science fiction movies where zombies come out at night to eat the humans. But I am also reminded of my grandfather's saying that "you youngin's don't know anything about life...just you wait" and the youngin's thinking "what a crazy old (so and so) he is."

So, if there are others out there as naive and unworldly as me, Jimmy Kimmel recently did a U-Tube Pokemon game introduction for his grandma.

This is very insightful - Enjoy!

WHY JOIN A GROUP TRAVEL CLUB?

There are a variety of RV club types, each offering benefits that serve different purposes. RV Discount Clubs offer RV park and other discounts along with a variety of other services and benefits. RV Travel Club memberships are based upon the make and model or class of RV you own, or on some other qualifier such as the Special Military Active Retired Travel. If you are considering joining one of the many RV Clubs you can guess that they are not all the same, though they will have many benefits and features in common. They may even offer far more than you need.
